

Dear Parents and Carers

We seem to have had a fairly quiet week this week which has been rather nice as we lead up to the preparations for Christmas. On Monday, however, we welcomed a policewoman to the school to give talks to the Junior children on aspects covering 'Stranger Danger' and road safety for Beech and Cedar. Oak class focussed on preparation for secondary schools, making the right choices and standing up to bullies.

The staff were busy on Wednesday evening with an extended staff meeting during which time we covered ways to augment the delivery of our Science curriculum. We also had a practical session on different ways to deliver effective modern foreign language lessons.

The week finished off with a cake sale put on by the parents in Beech class – thank you to everyone who made cakes and bought them!
